ALLEGED COWARDLY ASSAULT.

Incident in On Lok Yuen Cafe.

SOLDIERS CHARGED.

The alleged fracas in the On Lok Yuen Cafe, 36, Queen's Road Central, on Saturday night, in which two soldiers, both privates of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders were involved and subsequently taken to the Central Police Station, had a sequel before Mr. E. H. Williams at the Central Second Court this morning. The two men, named G. Finneram (21) and S. Gallagher (22) respectively, were both charged with (a) disorderly conduct, and (b) wilful damage of some glass ware, the property of the Cafe. A further charge of assaulting a waiter was preferred against Finneram.

Both defendants entered pleas of not guilty to all the charges. Inspector Shaftain prosecuted.

Something Broken.

In his evidence, Fung Tong (a waiter) said that at about 9.30 p.m. on Saturday the two defendants came into the shop and had an ice cream each. He served them, and, after leaving them, witness heard them make a noise which gave him the impression that something had been broken.

Witness went to see what had happened, but found that nothing had been broken, except that the ice cream cups had been turned upside down and that a spoon had been thrown to the ground. The two defendants then stood up, and, after witness had made out the bill he handed it to the first defendant. The latter pointed to the second defendant, who by this time had found his way to the front door of the cafe.

Witness went after the first defendant and asked for payment, and was struck on the nose. First defendant did not take the bill, but instead, knocked witness into a chair in the first cubicle, and he fell into a leaning position.

Taking opportunity of this the first defendant dashed up to witness and pushed his head in the corner of the chair, and put his hands round witness's neck, pressing him to the seat. After that he lifted witness up and placed him on the table, which had a glass top. In doing so, the first defendant broke the lamp shade and bulb, and bent a brass tube.

Police Called In.

Police whistles were then blown. On hearing this the first defendant released the witness and ran out of the shop. Witness chased him, and outside in the street he saw the second defendant under arrest of two Indian constables. First defendant on seeing that his friend had been caught, turned back and the party proceeded to the Police Station.

In reply to Inspector Shaftain, witness said: "I did not realise very much the pain at the time when I received the blows, but I was half stunned. My nose bled for well over 10 minutes." Witness added: "I saw nothing of the second defendant between the time that he walked out of the shop, and the time that he came back under the arrest of the Indian constables." He added: "When I received the blow on the nose I fell back to chair and the first defendant came up to me and put his hands round my head. When the first blow was struck I was outside the cubicle, and he knocked me in." Replying to his Worship, witness said that it was an accident that the glass table top broken. It was not broken before the incident."

Accused's Denial.

Finneram, when asked if he had any questions to put to witness said that he (witness) did not give him a bill.

Witness: I did offer you a bill.

First defendant said that they placed a dollar on the table as they had not been given a bill. Witness annoyed second defendant by pushing him about. In fact witness struck Gallagher.

Witness: I did not strike him, nor did I even touch him. There was no money on the table. The bill was 40 cents.

At this stage, his Worship adjourned the hearing to Wednesday at 2.15 p.m., the two defendants being in the custody of the Military authorities meanwhile.

PREMIER'S DENIAL OF PRESS RUMOUR.

Cabinet Split Story a "Deliberate Invention."

NO DISAGREEMENT.

Rugby, Yesterday.

The report, widely circulated yesterday, of the impending resignation of the Chancellor of the ex-Chequer, Mr. Philip Snowden, the first Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. W. Alexander, and the Secretary for India, Mr. Wedgwood Benn, is officialy denied. A communique issued last night from number 10, Downing Street, says: "The Prime Minister has been informed over the telephone at Chequers that a London paper publishes statements regarding the attitude of three of his colleagues in the Cabinet to the recently published Liberal memorandum on unemployment. He authorises the statement that the suggestion that the Cabinet are divided on this isue is quite untrue. Moreover, neither by personal representations nor by letter from any quarter has such communication as is indicated in the newspaper been made to him, and the first he had heard of it was when he was informed of the publication of the article.

"The story about a Cabinet split on Mr. Lloyd George's proposals is a deliberate invention from beginning to end. There is not a item of truth in the statement, nor shadow of foundation for any of the references made to myself."

Mr. Alexander said: "I know nothing of this alleged crisis and I feel certain that my other colleagues know nothing about it."

Mr. George Lansbury, First Commissioner of Works, speaking in Derbyshire last night, said that on the broad basic principles of policy there was no disagreement in the Cabinet at all. All the talk of a break was nonsense. "There is not likely to be a general election under three years, for we shall not resign until we are turned out, and I don't think that will happen, because the opposition cannot agree."—British Wireless Service.

v. Have any complaints been made, or any claims for compensation been sent in for destroyed or damaged property?
vi. Is the process of disinfection carried out carefully and under experienced supervision?"

PLANS FOR JAPAN'S NAVAL STRENGTH

160,000,000 to Be Spent on New Vessels.

AIR FORCE EXPANSION.

Tokyo, Yesterday.

Long drawn discussions between Navy and Finance Ministers have resulted in a tentative agreement to appropriate 373,000,000 yen, spread over six years, for the naval replenishment programme, while the balance of 132,000,000 of 500,000,000 yen, which is theoretically accruable under the London Naval Treaty, will be used to ease the burden of taxation.

Under this tentative agreement 160,000,000 yen will be appropriated for the construction of vessels covered by the Treaty and 58,000,000 yen for vessels outside the limitation.

Ninety million yen has been allotted for the expansion and maintenance of the naval air force, including 12 additional squadrons, giving a total of 29, while 60,000,000 yen is allotted to the modernisation and maintenance of capital ships, and 5,000,000 yen for the establishment of an aviation laboratory. Minor alterations are expected before the final approval by the Cabinet.—Reuter.

JEWS AND LABOUR.

WAS PRESSURE BROUGHT TO BEAR ON THE PREMIER?

REVERSAL OF POLICY.

Rugby, Yesterday.

With concurrence of the Colonial Office the Palestine Administration has been empowered to issue 1,450 permits for Jewish immigrants into Palestine in the next six months. In a White Paper recently issued it was stated that serious unemployment exists among both the Jew and Arabian population in Palestine and that any hasty decision in regard to more unrestricted Jewish immigration, was to be strongly deprecated.

The inference was drawn that immigration was not to be resumed at present, but it is officially stated that the Government had never expressed any intention of stopping immigration, but rather of taking steps to ensure that immigration should not exceed the capacity of the country to absorb an additional population. The action now taken, it is added, is in strict accordance with the policy of the Government, based upon the Balfour Declaration. — British Wireless Service.

CLEVER RUSE FAILS.

OPIUM CONCEALED ON GIRLS' LEGS.

$5,000 FINE IMPOSED.

A Chinese youth was to-day charged before Mr. R. E. Lindsell by Revenue Officer Grimmitt with the unlawful possession of 45 taels of prepared opium in 25 Circular Pathway. He pleaded guilty.

Mr. Grimmitt said that on information received he raided the house last night, and on entering found a Chinese girl leaving the place with four rubber bands round her legs. There was no opium. Later a call came at the door for "Ah Chan" and the defendants walked out, in an attempt, at the same time, to escape. He was searched and opium was found concealed in four rubber bands which was strapped round his legs. A little girl was behind defendant at the time, but she had no opium. Mr. Grimmitt added that the place was evidently a dealer's house, and that probably the first lot of carriers had got away.

A fine of $5,000 with the alternative of eight months' hard labour was imposed.

In another case, a Chinese woman who came off the steamer Sai On last night with opium tied to her legs, was fined $200 or, in default two months hard labour. Opium in both cases was ordered to be confiscated.

WEST RIVER BOAT PIRATED.

Bandits Take Victims to the Hills.

PRISONER'S ESCAPADE.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Wuchow, Friday.

On the night of November 5 bandits in Kong Hau on the West River boarded the passenger boat Shun Lei, as passengers. When the boat was a few miles above Kong Hau on its way to Kwai Uen the bandits brought forth their hidden guns and proceeded to relieve all the passengers of their possessions and baggage. Having secured all the baggage they took some of the pasengers and the captain of the boat away to the mountains for ransom. The following day soldiers from Kong Hau pursued the bandits and captured 10 of them but failed to rescue the prisoners.

Bid for Freedom.

On November 6 on board the speedy motor boat San Tang Chow, a Kwong Tung soldier was being taken back to Wuchow for trial before a Court Martial on charges of desertion from the army. The boat just having left the city of Tueng Uen the prisoner jumped overboard, even though his arms were bound with ropes. The guard seeing his prisoner jump into the river, fired some five or six shots at him, several of which, no doubt, took effect, as the unfortunate man was seen come to the surface but went down for the last time. The boat circled immediately and went back to the spot, but no trace of the prisoner was to be seen. The boat then proceeded on its way to Wuchow.

GRAVE CHARGE.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT OF $2,000.

PARTNER IN COURT.

Au Shun Hing, a managing partner of the Li On Firm, 2, Kö Shing Street, was to-day brought before Mr. E. H. Williams in the Central Court, on a charge that he, between October 27 and November 3, unlawful did embezzle the sum of $2,000, the money of the firm.

Appearing on behalf of the complainant, Cheung Wa-hing (a fellow partner), Mr. T. G. Bennett informed his Worship that he would like a remand of one week, as there were two more charges to be put against the defendant. One was the embezzlement of $1,500 and the other was one of falsifying the books of the firm. He would like bail to be in a substantial sum.

His Worship remanded defendant for a week, and granted bail in the sum of $5,000.

FULL RECOGNITION FOR BRAZIL.

Britain and U.S. After Brazilian Trade.

KEEN RIVALRY.

New York, Yesterday.

A message from Rio de Janeiro states that Great Britain has recognised the new Brazilian Government. — Reuter's American Service.

Earlier Cables.

Washington, Saturday.

The Government of the United States has extended full recognition to the new Brazilian Government.

The announcement was made with dramatic suddenness by the Secretary of State, Mr. Stimson, following a prolonged conference with President Hoover, at which a detailed report of the political situation in Brazil was considered.

The promptness with which the State Department has acted in this matter is evidently designed to eradicate the memory of the diplomatic blunder committed when the United States refused to permit shipments of arms to the revolutionaries.

The State Department has also shown that it is keenly alive to the fact that valuable foreign markets are at stake in Brazil, by recognising the new Government ahead of Great Britain, who is America's principal rival in those markets. — Reuter's American Service.

INDIA CONFERENCE.

NEGOTIATIONS TO BEGIN ON WEDNESDAY.

KING RECEIVES PRINCES.

Rugby, Yesterday.

All the delegates to the Indian Round Table Conference have now assembled in London, the Maharajah of Patiala, Chancellor of the Chamber of Princes, having arrived yesterday from Paris. Eighty-six delegates, of whom 16 will represent the princes, 57 British India, and 13 the British Parliament, will meet on Wednesday in the Royal Gallery of the House of Lords for the formal opening of the Conference by H.M. the King. Subsequent meetings will be held in St. James's Palace where, during the past week, several informal sectional meetings have been held.

The King and Queen received the Indian delegates to the Conference at Buckingham Palace yesterday. The delegates were presented by Captain Wedgewood Benn, Secretary for India.—British Wireless Service.

GENERAL T. H. BLISS.

FORMER U.S. CHIEF OF STAFF DEAD.

IN MANY CAMPAIGNS.

Washington, Yesterday.

The death occurred to-day of General T. H. Bliss, the former Chief of State of the United States Army, in his seventy-seventh year.—Reuter's American Service.

[General Tasker Howard Bliss, G.C.M.G., who was U.S. representative on the Versailles War Council, was born in 1853, and entering the U.S. Military Academy in 1875, served through several campaigns, including the Mexican insurrection and the Porto Rican rising, and the Great War. During the last campaign he was a member of the U.S. General Staff, and after the Armistice, American Commissioner at the Paris Peace Conference.]

It was the custom of the congregation to repeat the Twenty-third Psalm in concert, and Mrs. Armstrong's notion of joining was to keep about a dozen words ahead all the way through. A stranger was asking one day about Mrs. Armstrong.

"Who," he inquired, "was the lady who was already by the still waters while the rest of us were lying down in green pastures?"

AUSTRALIA TO PAY HER LOANS.

To Honour Her Finance Obligations.

PREMIER'S FIRM STAND.

London, Yesterday.

The assurance that Australia will strictly honour its financial obligations was given by Mr. J. Scullin, the Premier, in a statement issued in London, which declares that nothing will induce the Australian Government to adopt a policy of deliberately deferring payment of maturing loans. They must be met on the due date. Any other course would be disastrous to Australian credit, and delay for years the restoration of their economic prosperity. The Government will meet its obligations.

Mr. Scullin is confident that any Australian Government which failed to do so would lose the support of the Australian people.—Reuter.

Tour Curtailed.

Rugby, Yesterday.

In view of the developments in Australia, the tour of the Australian Prime Minister, Mr. J. Scullin, in the West of England was curtailed and he returned to London yesterday to consult his colleagues, the Attorney-General, Mr. Brennan, and the Minister for Markets, Mr. Moloney, who with Mr. Scullin are the Australian delegates to the Imperial Conference. The consultation produced no change in the attitude of Mr. Scullin firmly to resist the proposals of the extremists of the Labour caucus for the compulsory postponement of the redemption of the £27,000,000 internal loan, maturing next month. —British Wireless Service.

ADULTERATION OF MILK.

Delivery Man Puts in Water.

TRIES TO BRIBE P.C.

A Chinese delivery man employed at the Kwong Lee Chi Kee dairy at Lung Chau Cheng, Kowloon City, appeared before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day in connection with a charge against him of adulterating milk, and of offering a bribe to an Indian constable who saw him putting water in the milk.

Detective-Sergeant Kellett, who prosecuted, said that the accused was brought to the Tsimsha-tsui Police Station at about 2 p.m. on November 6. He had two baskets. One contained 14 large and five small empty milk bottles, and the other eight large and seven small full bottles. In addition there was a bottle partly filled with water which had been contaminated with milk. The milk bottles which were full had cardboard stoppers, but they were not sealed with wax. He sent all the full bottles to Mr. E. R. Dovey, the Government Analyst.

Mr. Dovey, in his evidence, said that his examination of the contents of the bottles resulted in his finding that the milk in every case had been adulterated with water. Three of the bottles contained more than half water, whilst the proportion of water in the others was about one-third.

What His Mistress Said.

The mistress of the dairy gave evidence that she filled the milk bottles directly after the milk had been taken from the cows and handed the bottles, properly sealed, to the accused to deliver to customers. She sealed the bottles with wax herself and accused had nothing to do with the bottles except deliver them.

It was not part of the accused's duty to wash the empty bottles, which would be done by other fokis when they were brought to the dairy. There was also no need for the accused to pass the milk from large to small bottles.

Husband or Foreman?

Accused said that the master of the dairy gave him the instructions to wash the empties and pass the milk into them. The mistress of the dairy said that there was no master, because she was a widow. She suggested that the accused was referring to the foreman.

This man happened to be in Court and he was called to give evidence. He asserted that the last witness was his wife.

Mr. Butters (to the woman): I thought you said that you have no husband?

The woman: He is my foreman, but if he wants to claim to be my husband, let him do so!

No Instructions to Accused.

In reply to the accused, this witness denied that, as the dairy was short of their own bottles, they used the bottles of various other dairies to put the milk in. He also denied that he had given the accused instructions to transfer the milk to the dairy's empties before delivering it.

Accused: Even with this system there had not been enough bottles to go round and I have actually delivered milk in bottles which did belong to the dairy. I want to call some of the customers to say that they have received milk in different bottles.

The Magistrate said that that evidence would not make any difference to the case as the charge against him was one of adulterating the milk.

Accused: The water I carried with me was for washing the empties before transferring the milk to them. When the constable saw me I was washing the empties and not putting water in milk as he alleged. I don't gain anything by adulterating the milk.

Convicted on Both Charges.

His Worship convicted the accused on both charges. For adulterating the milk he was fined $100 or ten weeks' jail, and for offering the bribe to the constable, a further fine of $25 or three weeks' hard labour, in default the jail terms to run both 406 PROPOSALS.

A WEEK'S CONFERENCE IN NANKING.

Nanking, Yesterday.

After daily sessions extending over a week, at which 406 proposals dealing with almost every phase of industry, commerce and labour were discussed, the National Industrial and Commercial Conference closed yesterday.

The Vice-Minister of Industry, Commerce and Labour, Cheng Hung-nien, in his closing address, gave an assurance that the Ministry, in conjunction with other organs concerned, would make every effort to translate the proposals into actualities.

The conference discussed, inter alia, the abolition of unilateral treaties, discontinuance of Consular jurisdiction, adoption of a protective tariff, reorganisation of the revenue system, monetary reforms, scientific management and rationalisation of industries, labour welfare, unemployment relief, development of international trade, and large-scale production, distribution and marketing of China-produced goods, especially silk, textiles, tea, cement, tung oil, beans and porcelain.—Reuter.

BANK FAILURES.

REASSURING STATEMENT MADE BY M. REYNAUD.

Paris, Saturday.

In the Chamber to-day the Finance Minister, M. Paul Reynaud, referring to the bank failures, made a reassuring statement in regard to the banking situation in France generally

The Tribunal of Commerce, after hearing M. Oustrick, the founder and managing director, and M. Paradis, the Chairman of the Oustrick Bank, have granted the benefit of a "judiciary liquidation" which involves the examination of the assets and liabilities and a pro rata settlement without declaring the bank technically bankrupt.—Reuter.

[A message of November 4 stated:—M. Tardieu, the Premier, is personally taking steps to minimise the injury due through the recent closing of the Adam Bank, one of the oldest banking institutions with over 100 branches in north France. The crash is particularly felt in Boulogne, whose population deposited its savings in the Adam Bank, and 100 fishing smacks are lying idle, their owners being unable to pay their crews.

Arrangements are being made to liquidate the assets, which are stated to be ample to cover the commitments. Meanwhile, the direct consequence of the Adam's Bank failure is that the Banque La Cour et Chasseraud of Angouleme has temporarily ceased operations, and an important provincial bank, Le Credit du Rhone, has closed its doors, though it is understood to have obtained support to enable a reopening.]

BY AIR TO CANADA.

A BRITISH-CANADIAN PROJECT.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.

Definite plans for the establishment of a British-Canadian trans-Atlantic airship service, including the possibility of airship construction in Canada, have been presented by the Dominion Prime Minister, Mr. Bennett, in a complete and detailed memorandum by Sir Denistoun Burney to-day.

It is proposed that the Canadian and British Governments should advance 75 per cent. towards the construction cost of a new type of airship twice the size of the R100, each Government undertaking contracts for the transportation of six tons of mail on a semi-weekly service at £5,000 a ton, making the postal rates from 8 to 10 cents per letter.

The plans contemplate the formation of a company with a capital of $30,000,000, to be backed by both Governments, for the construction of four or six airships. Mr. Bennett has promised to give the memorandum careful consideration, and to be prepared to discuss the matter with the British Government at the coming Imperial Conference. Mr. Bennett gave Sir D. Burney a letter to Mr. Ramsay MacDonald for delivery on the arrival of the airship in Britain.

Sir D. Burney stated in an interview that he had been assured of sufficient capital to finance the proposed airship service, provided [illegible] Canadian and British [illegible]

PRESS FINANCE.

LOSSES OF NORTHCLIFFE NEWSPAPERS, LTD.

The accounts of Northcliffe Newspapers, Limited, for the year to June 30, show a debit balance of £98,956, which, after providing for debenture interest, increases the total debit balance to £133,050, though there was a profit of £91,122 on sale of investments, and this has been credited to investment reserve account.

Northcliffe Newspapers is the company formed in 1928 to float Evening Worlds at various provincial centres, and to purchase established provincial newspapers, in pursuance of which control was acquired of the Staffordshire Sentinel, Gloucestershire Echo, Gloucester Citizen, South Wales Daily Post, and Cambrian Daily Leader. Later control was secured of the Hull Daily Mail and Grimsby Daily Telegraph.

The capital was provided mainly by an issue to the public of £3,000,000 of debenture stock, guaranteed by Associated Newspapers, Ltd., and Daily Mirror Newspapers, Ltd., with which companies, it was stated, the new concern would work in close collaboration.

The newspapers of the company connected mainly with existing journals, notably with some of those owned by the "Berry" group. A suggestion of agreement between the rival groups was provided by the announcement that newspapers would not be started in Cardiff, Sheffield, and Aberdeen, as foreshadowed in the company's programme, while the purchase of the Hull Daily Mail entailed an agreement not to found new evening papers in other spheres served by Provincial Newspapers, Ltd., the vendors, and one of the constituents of the "Harrison" group.

MAGNATE'S DEATH.

Tokyo, Yesterday.

Mr. Soichiro Asano, business magnate, died this afternoon of oesophagostenosis (stricture of the esophagus) at the age of 82.—Reuter.

[Mr. Asano was the President of the Toyo Steamship Company, the Asano Dockyards and Director of many other concerns.]

A report of Hon. Mr. W. A. Mackenzie, Minister of Mines in British Columbia, shows an increased quantity production in the aggregate of minerals and metals, though the dollar gross value dropped from $34,122,722 in the first half of 1929 to $29,909,487 for the half year of 1930.

GOLD FIND.

News of the discovery of a rich gold field in Central New Guinea has been received in Brisbane. A large area in this new field has been pegged out already for the Central New Guinea Exploration Co., Ltd., whose representative made the "find" after months of hard work, says the Brisbane Courier.

The discovery was made by the well-known gold miner and explorer, Mr. E. J. Ubank, who has had considerable experience in New Guinea gold mining undertakings.

The discovery of the gold field, stated the chairman of the company (Mr. L. Code) to a reporter, was the result of several months of assiduous labour. The company was registered on March 14 to finance an expedition into a district of the Mandated Territory, where the promoter of the enterprise (Mr. E. J. Ubank) believed that payable gold would be found.

Mr. Ubank left Brisbane on March 14, and left Lae for his final exploration into central New Guinea on July 17. On receipt of the cablegram the company immediately took up a large area on lease. Mr. Ubank, it will be remembered, was the man who pegged the No. 9 goldmining lease—the Ubank Lease—on Edie Creek, in May, 1927.

PREMIER'S REFUSAL

WILL NOT GRANT LABOUR LOAN DEMAND.

Canberra, Saturday.

Following the receipt of a cable from Mr. James Scullin, the Premier, now in London, refusing the Labour Caucus loan demand, the Acting Premier, Mr. Fenton, announced that the Federal Government had rejected the proposal. Mr. Lyons will remain in office and proceed with the plans to arrange a regular conversion loan.

Mr. Fenton stated that some bond holders had offered to cancel 25 per cent. of their holdings as a national gift.

The recalcitrants are now led by the Health Minister, Mr. Anstey, who was responsible for the Caucus motion on November 6.—Reuter.

[A message of November 6 stated:—Mr. Lyons, the Acting Treasurer, has resigned following a resolution by the Labour Caucus ordering the legislation to compel holders of the £27,000,000 loan, maturing in December, to hold their bonds another year. The resolution laid down that interest would be paid as usual and that necessitous holders would be enabled to cash small amounts of bonds.]

ROUND THE CINEMAS

FIRST SCREENING OF "THE KISS."

GRETA GARBO FEATURED.

The alluring and fascinating screen favourite Greta Garbo adds yet another laurel to her success as a dramatic actress in Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer's sound production, "The Kiss" now playing at the Queen's Theatre to appreciative audiences. It will be on till Wednesday.

Playing opposite Miss Garbo, in the leading male role is Mr. Conrad Nagel, who will be remembered by screen fans for his good work in "Dynamite," "The 13th Chair" and other productions. Anders Randolf, Holmes Herbert, and George Davis appear in the cast and a newcomer is Lew Ayres, young and handsome.

Settings of this film are in France, where, according to the story, Miss Garbo is the wife of Randolf, but is at the same time loved by Nagel (a barrister) and Ayres (a school boy). The latter is caught by Randolf, one night kissing Greta at her house, and the scenes that follow leads to a dramatic murder trial in Court, and Miss Garbo is the prisoner, with Nagel defending.

Besides the film, there is shown a most interesting Hearst Newsreel. In this one hears Commander Booth of the airship R.100 telling of the flight from Britain to Canada, and H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester speaking at the opening of Stanmore Hospital. Splendid scenes of the recent Italian earthquake disaster are also depicted, as is the polo match between Britain and America.

Robert Chisholm, a Lieutenant in the Australian Army during the War, delights with the rendering of three army songs. His voice is clear and carries well. A colourtone revuette, entitled "The Doll Shop," is very pretty.

"THE FLORODORA GIRL"

If it is true that the girls of yesterday sat by the fireside awaiting the arrival of a beau to carry them off in a romantic manner the modern girls have progressed infinitely.

In place of sitting idly waiting they are out in midst of things. In place of focusing their eye toward the masculine gender they are occupying their time in mental and physical pursuits.

There are no "beautiful but dumb" types among them for they are as actively interested in mind development as in beauty. There are singing and public speech studies, dancing and golf lessons. The introduction of airplane travel has brought their attention to foreign languages so that one or two foreign languages are included in their accomplishments.

Marion Davies, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's well-known star who appears at the Queen's Theatre on Wednesday in her latest starring vehicle, "The Florodora Girl," is a good example of this modern type.

Included in her list of achievements is a thorough mastery over dancing. From the active tap dancing to the more difficult toe dancing she excels. French and Spanish are among her studies and she is also an accomplished swimmer, tennis player and golf enthusiast. Her singing ability has already been tested on the screen.

These accomplishments have meant hours spent in study away from the friends who have bidden for her time. For this reason she has reached a goal of popularity in the public eye, an achievement which has also brought happiness to herself.

Appearing with Miss Davies in "The Florodora Girl" are such well-known players as Lawrence Gray, Walter Catlett, Ilka Chase, Vivian Oakland, Nance O'Neil, Jed Prouty, Claude Allister, Louis John Bartels, and Sam Hardy. Harry Beaumont directed.

"POINTED HEELS."

Two Helen Kanes will be seen and heard in a forthcoming Paramount film production—one of them wholly different from the little girl who baby-talked her way into national fame as a Broadway, radio phonograph and talking picture entertainer. The other will be her true roly-poly-eyed self.

In "Pointed Heels," the new production, which comes to the Central Theatre to-day, Miss Kane and Richard "Skeets" Gallagher play "Dot" and "Dash" Nixon, a song and dance team who aspire to Broadway prominence. After they have won fame they turn "high hat." It is during this period that Miss Kane goes operatic and sings a song in the best change she soon becomes her old Boston manner. As a welcome self and boop-doopa-doops all over the place in that familiar dulcet intonation of hers.

William Powell plays the male lead in the production—a suave-mannered producer of artistic stage revues . . . a potential menace which never quite materialises. For he falls in love with Fay Wray, show girl, who is happily wed to Phillips Holmes, and when he fails to win her away from the handsome youth, he philosophically shrugs it off and doffs his hat to his enemy. True love, as if to say, "You win."

A. Edward Sutherland directed "Pointed Heels." He was the director of "Fast Company" and "The Saturday Night Kid," two immensely successful recent all-talking films, and a number of earlier hits.

"GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN GIRL."

A dazzling array of Broadway talent is featured in the all-talking, singing and dancing musical extravaganza, "Glorifying the American Girl." To begin with, Florenz Ziegfeld, who originally conceived the idea of "glorifying" girls for his famous revues, personally supervised this Paramount production. J. P. McEvoy, the creator of the vivacious Dixe Dugan of "Show Girl" fame, wrote the story.

In the cast of "Glorifying the American Girl" are Mary Eaton, Eddie Cantor, Dan Healy, Helen Morgan, Rudy Vallee, Edward Crandall and Olive Shea.

"Glorifying the American Girl" has been produced as a show within a show. In addition to a glittering, tuneful revue in which Eddie Cantor runs wild in an uproarious comedy skit, Helen Morgan plaintively sings "What Wouldn't I Do For That Man," and Rudy Vallee and his incomparable orchestra feature their popular radio hit, "Vagabond Lover," there is the story of a department store sales girl who dreams of becoming a great Ziegfeld star. In the person of Mary Eaton, the Gloria Hughes who dreams of bright lights and fame comes to life with a refreshing and believable touch. The ravishing Miss Eaton is a delight to behold and a joy to listen to. She sings, she dances, she falls in love, and everything she does is disarmingly gay and charming. Those who liked Miss Eaton in her first talking picture, "The Coconuts," will readily agree that in "Glorifying" she is seen and heard to even greater advantage.

Dan Healy, also a Broadway star, plays a prominent role in the story, as do both Olive Shea and Edward Crandall. There is a delightful romance in which Miss Eaton, Crandall and Olive Shea make up the eternal triangle. In this case, however, there is a novel twist to the romance that supplies this picture with an unexpected dramatic punch.

Millard Webb directed "Glorifying the American Girl," which will be presented at the Central Theatre on Thursday.

AN N.Y.K. MEMORY.

FAMOUS SHIPS GO TO SCRAP HEAP.

The news from Japan that the Nippon Yusen Kaisha has sold the Sado Maru and Awa Maru for scrap must inevitably conjure up many memories of the early days of the company's European service, and equally inevitably comparisons with its size nowadays. For they were two units of the dozen twin-screw liners with which the European service was started.

Of this dozen, ten were built in Britain and two in Japan. Awa Maru was one of these latter, and was indeed the second big ship to be built in the island Empire, while the Sado Maru came from Workman Clark's yard at Belfast. Both were ships about 6,300 tons, with a speed of 13 knots, and for their day were very comfortable ships, in addition to being excellent cargo carriers.

When the Sado Maru was acting as a military transport during the Russo-Japanese War in June, 1904, she was intercepted by the Russian Vladivostock Squadron, near Ikishima. Two torpedoes hit her, one in the boiler room and the second in the cross bunker, and at first it was reported that she had sunk. Happily, however, the after end floated on the deep tank, and owing to her excellent construction it was possible to beach her and then take her to Nagasaki, where she was repaired in time to remove a large number of prisoners of war to Japan when Port Arthur surrendered.

After that she was commissioned as a cruiser, and immediately after the victory of Tsushima she and a destroyer discovered the Russian ironclads Admirals Nakhimoff and Vladimir Monomakh in a seriously battered condition. In spite of the fact that they could very easily have blown both Japanese ships out of the water with their secondary batteries only, they gallantly closed with the intention of capturing them, and were only defeated in their object by the foundering of both vessels.

As the Awa maru was one of the earliest ships built by the Mitsubishi Yard her trials took a long time, for she was built under the Subsidy Act, and received a very comfortable bonus both for power and speed. She also acted as a transport during the Russo-Japanese War, but did not have the exciting adventures of her sister. Both ships were replaced on the main European service by the advent of new and very much bigger ships in the years that immediately preceded the war, but they were far from being worn out, and since then they have done excellent work on the Pacific and Indian services, in addition to a few sailings on their original run when conditions were abnormal.

STEAMER HELD UP.

PASSAGE NOT ACCORDING TO PLAN.

Four American students who set out to work their passages during a three months' vacation from California to the East and back, and who were carried on to Cape Town, were granted an attachment order by the Supreme Court against the steamer Litiopa.

The students declared that by their being brought to Cape Town their contracts were broken, and they feared that if the ship was allowed to leave, irreparable harm would be done, and they would be without a remedy, as they had no means of enforcing the obligations of the owners. The ship was due to leave Cape Town that day bound for Luderitz Bay, returning via the Cape and Borneo. The captain was unable to tell the students when he would land them in California.

The students alleged that the ship's change of destination constituted a breach of contract, as the owners had contracted that they would be back in California in September.

The court granted a rule nisi operating as a temporary interdict attaching the ship until cause was shown why £300 should not be lodged by the owners.

According to Lloyd's Register, the Litiopa is a 5,000-ton tank steamer flying the Norwegian flag.

SUEZ CANAL

RECORD FIGURES FOR TRAFFIC DURING JULY.

The traffic through the Suez Canal during July, 1930, reached a total of 2,647,000 tons net, thus exceeding all previous figures registered for October, which is due to an exceptional activity of vessels in ballast.

Compared with the figures for July, 1929, there is an increase of 27,000 tons, resulting solely from transits in the south-north direction, which reached 28,000 tons, whilst the traffic in the north-south direction shows a decrease of 1,000 tons. The postal services in both directions of traffic show a total reduction of 41,000 tons.

The commercial operations, in spite of an increased activity in the south-north direction, show a total reduction of 25,000 tons as compared with July, 1929. These reductions, however, are more than compensated for by an increase of 91,000 tons, resulting from navigation in ballast, especially due to the activity of tank steamers.

Tankers, both laden and in ballast, have contributed to the movement of traffic during October 477,000 tons net, as against 358,000 tons for July, 1929, an increase of one-third.

During this period, 20 vessels made their first appearance in the canal, among which may be mentioned the new liner Empress of Japan, of 26,500 tons gross, belonging to the Canadian Pacific, having for its destination Hong Kong, and also other large units, such as the tank steamers Atheltemplar (9,400 tons) owned by the British Molasses Company, and the Scottish Heather (7,400 tons), belonging to Tankers, Limited.

The shipments of merchandise through the canal reached a total of 2,300,000 tons in weight. As compared with the total net tonnage for July, 1929, there is a decrease of 355,000 tons, resulting mainly from the outward traffic.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Doberck during the years 1887, 1888 and 1889.

The times and heights are given for Kowloon; but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

A ROTARY CLUB?

With the arrival of Mr. J. W. Campbell, Hon. General Commissioner of Rotary International, interest, mingled with a certain amount of curiosity, will be aroused as to the fate of any effort to found a Club here. In regard to anything new the Colony has been described as a chilling one, slow to respond even to anything good; whilst a certain number are hypercritical unless they get in on "the ground floor" and dominate the organisation from the start. Others, again, prefer the Asquithian policy of "Wait and See"—what "the other fellow" is doing! The subject of Rotary has been one for editorial comment in the China Mail on a few occasions within the last five years; but the response can hardly be said to be encouraging. But, now that we have in our midst the Hon. General Commissioner for Rotary International, we may be pardoned if we quote rather liberally from our sister contemporary, the Sunday Herald of May 15, 1927:—

In this Colony citizenship is held in high esteem. Those who work for the public weal are regarded as worthy residents of a worthy Colony. Yet it is passing strange that here we have no Rotary Club. We are behind Shanghai and other centres in the Far East. Why should this be so? Has the Rotary Club no [illegible] and no message for [illegible] work and live [illegible] Kong? [illegible] found it? [illegible]

a Rotary Club was suggested: a few prominent residents appeared to take an interest in it: and then, like so many good things submitted with a view to raising citizenship to the high pinnacle it so well deserves, the topic faded out. In now reviving it are we wasting precious space and precious time?

The great principle underlying the Rotary movement is that by the machinery of Rotary Clubs there will be produced world citizens who will be different from all other world citizens and who will be inspired by an international patriotism. Recognising no barriers of race, class, creed, caste, or politics, Rotary is building up an international brotherhood based on splendid and high ideals, and it is no spirit of egotism, or of exaggerated optimism, that Rotarians can picture future historians, themselves living in an era of world-peace and universal brotherhood, paying tribute to the Rotary Clubs for the work they did to help to secure that happy result.

The ideals are not beyond the grasp of the average citizen of Hong Kong. Thus, amongst its aims a member has to subscribe to the following "charter":—

"As a Rotarian, it is my duty . . . to consider my occupation worthy . . . to realise that I am a business man and ambitious to succeed, but that I am first an ethical man and wish no success that is not founded on the highest justice and morality . . . To consider no personal success legitimate or ethical which is secured by taking unfair advantage of certain opportunities in the social order . . . to believe in the universality of the Golden Rule: All things whatever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even unto them."

And then—"The advancement of understanding, goodwill and international peace through a world-fellowship of business men united in the Rotary ideal of service." Service before self! That is Rotary! Surely we in Hong Kong who pride ourselves on our love for the Colony and on our unselfish citizenship can rise to the sublime heights afforded by the formation of a Rotary Club in our midst!

The opportunity longed for by many admirers of the Rotary movement in this Colony is now to hand with the presence of the Hon. General Commissioner for Rotary International in our midst. May the good seed sown on its behalf in the China Mail and the Sunday Herald for nearly [illegible] bear abundant

News in Brief.

The annual ball of the Hong Kong St. George's Society is to be held at the Peninsula Hotel on January 6.

Private Pitcher of "C" Company Somerset Light Infantry died on Saturday and was buried with full military honours in the afternoon.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ended October 25, amounted to 118,895 tons, and the sales to 100,697 tons.

The master of the England Maru reported at the Harbour office today that whilst at sea bound for Hong Kong on Sunday he sighted a floating oil barge in Lt. 16.15 N. Long. 117.29 E, drifting to south-west. It is a danger to navigation.

According to a report made at Police Headquarters on Saturday, Mrs. Koch, the wife of Dr. W. V. M. Koch, lost a gold brooch, set with emeralds and rubies, valued at £15. It was stated that she missed the ornament outside D. Chellaram & Co.'s shop in Pedder Street.

A Chinese had a narrow escape from a serious accident on Saturday evening when he fell from a motor truck in Taipo Road. Fortunately he fell outward, although his leg just escaped being caught in one of the rear wheels of the truck. The driver and he appeared to be skylarking, which might have been disastrous.

A performance will be held at the Helena May Institute on Wednesday, November 12, at 9 p.m. when the Amateur Dramatic Club will present "Snobs" by E. Temple Thurston, and "Half An Hour" by Sir J. M. Barrie. Tickets can be booked at the Helena May Institute, $2 and $1. Open to the public.—Advt.

It is notified at the Harbour Office that the western entrance to Lantao Shannel shows considerable shoaling in the area north and west of Cheung Chau Island. The six fathom line now extends roughly in a direction 350 degrees from the island, whilst all depths to the westward of this line and north of Lat. 22.10 N. show a decrease of two to four fathoms.

The Superioress and Sisters of the Canossian Institute wish to thank Lady Peel for so graciously accepting to open their Bazaar on Saturday. They also wish to thank their many patrons and friends who spent so generously at the Bazaar, and especially the Commodore for the loan of flags and bunting, the Editors of the China Mail and Sunday Herald, the Hong Kong Electric Co., the Blue Bird Co., the Britannia Aerated Water., Sincere Co., Chung Hing Store, the String Band under the able direction of Mr. Cirillo Salazar for the beautiful selections played during the two days of the Bazaar, and the pupils of the school who contributed to the success of the Bazaar.

9 P.M. TIME GUN.

[To the Editor of "China Mail."]

Sir,—May I, through the medium of your valuable paper call the attention of the authority concerned that the report of the 9 p.m. gun is nearly always not audible in certain parts of the City and I ask that some improvement be made so as to enable more people to make use of this means to keep proper time.

26 YEARS' SERVICE.

CAREER OF MR. THOMAS HYNES.

Heartiest congratulations will to-day go out to Mr. Thomas Hynes, Superintendent of Mails, General Post Office, who has rounded up 26 years' connection with the Government service. Beginning on November 10, 1904, Mr. Hynes was appointed a police constable, later becoming first class Sanitary Inspector. During his period of service, Mr. Hynes has held several other posts, among them being Acting Inspector-in-Charge, Animal Depot and Slaughter House. He was appointed to the post of Superintendent of Mails on May 6, 1914.

The inspector—weighing sixteen stones—was giving the class of small boys a lecture on birds. "Now, boys," he said, "can any of you tell me what a canary can do that I can't do?"

FIVE WEDDINGS.

DAUGHTER OF REGIMENTAL S.M., R.A.

Q.M.S. OF THE R.E.

A wedding was solemnised by the Rev. Father J. J. O'Brien, C.F., in St. Joseph's Church on Saturday, when Dorothy Alexandra Elizabeth, daughter of Regimental Sergeant-Major Dyer, R.A., and Mrs. Dyer, became the bride of Quarter-Master Sergeant Charles George Peachey, R.E., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peachey, of Brighton.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a dress of white georgette, with tulle veil and orange blossom. She carried a neat sheaf of white chrysanthemums and roses. The contracting parties were Miss Madge Clark, of the Diocesan Girls' School, and Mr. Edward C. Thomas, of the Diocesan Boys' School. They were married by the Very Rev. Dean Swann, M.A., D.S.C. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Clement Demee, was charmingly attired in a dress of white georgette, with chantilly lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and Honolulu creepers. MRS. VICTOR BRUCE.

ARRIVAL AT KAI TACK AERODROME.

A COURAGEOUS FLIGHT.

The Hon. Mrs. Victor Bruce, who is on a solo flight from Britain to Japan, landed at Kai Tack aerodrome at 2.30 yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Bruce had been held up in Kwong Chau Wan, Indo-China, on her flight from Hanoi, owing to adverse winds. She was welcomed at Kai Tack by Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and Mrs. Shenton, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. R. Moss, and members of the Flying Club.

News having been received from Fort Bayard at 11 a.m. that the aviatrix was en route to Hong Kong, machines from the Flying Club were sent out to escort her. They returned an hour later, not having seen the 'plane, but at 2.20 Mrs. Bruce appeared above the hills at the back of the Club.

Mrs. Bruce's machine, a Blackburn Bluebird, bore various messages of goodwill on the wings and tail. One line, which Mrs. Bruce wrote herself, had a rather special significance. It said "I am walking to Jask." Mrs. Bruce explained that she wrote this after coming down in the desert, for the information of the rescue party she was anxiously awaiting.

In an interview with Pressmen, Mrs. Bruce outlined her adventures since leaving Heston on September 25. At Hanoi she was entertained at a banquet, being feted as the first airwoman to land in French Indo-China. Her actual flying time since leaving Home was fourteen days.

It is interesting to note that Mrs. Bruce, throughout her long flight, has used Shell Aviation Spirit and Golden Shell Motor Oil.

It is expected that the flying boat will remain at Calshot for a day or two after its arrival and will be visited by privileged visitors.

The German Embassy and the British Air Ministry are each taking down 200 guests and in all something like 500 people will be shown over the flying boat.

The Prince of Wales will probably fly in his own aeroplane to the Hampshire Flying Club's aerodrome and then cross the river to Calshot to inspect the machine.—British Wireless Service.

DRAMATIC AIR RACE

PRESS RIVALRY TO GET PHOTOS TO LONDON.

PLUCKY 5,000 MILES TRIP.

London, Saturday.

The keen rivalry of London newspapers to be the first in the field with photographs of the Ethiopian coronation led to dramatic flights from Addis Ababa. One group to-day presents pictures brought by Captain Lawrence Hope and Captain Birkett, who accomplished the great journey of 5,000 miles to Croydon in five days. Major Irwin Clarke, piloting an opposition machine, set off from Addis Ababa a few hours earlier, and although ill, pluckily continued to Tunis, where he was compelled to give in. He was only able to despatch the photos to Marseilles by seaplane the following day, whence they were telephoned to London, thus enabling simultaneous publication with rival papers.—Reuter.

PRINCE'S TRIP.

LEAVING FOR SOUTH AMERICA IN JANUARY.

TRADE EXHIBITION.

Rugby, Saturday.

After calling at Bermuda and Havana the vessel will pass through the Panama Canal and make for Valparaiso, Chile. The Prince will spend some time in this country and will then cross to Buenos Aires by railway for the opening of the British Trade Exhibition.

He will leave the Argentine for Brazil in the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's motor vessel, Alcantara, arriving on March 25 at Rio de Janeiro, where he will spend two or three weeks. During this time it is understood the Prince will endeavour to make a tour of those parts of the country which he was unable to visit during his last tour. This, however, depends on local circumstances.

The Prince will return to Britain from Rio de Janeiro by the liner Arlanza, arriving in Southampton in April.

New Zealand's Request.

It is reported from Wellington, New Zealand, that the London Committee of the Buenos Aires Trade Exhibition have asked that the carillon of bells, which have been cast in London and are designed for a war memorial in New Zealand, should be lent for exhibition. ARSENAL'S GOOD WIN—NORTHAMPTON SURPRISED.

NOTTS COUNTY DRAW.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

London, Saturday.

Arsenal secured a good win over their nearest rivals, Aston Villa, whilst Wednesday won at Leeds. Derby County divided the points with Liverpool.

In the Second Division Everton easily defeated the "Wolves," whilst Preston North-End and Burnley both won away.

Notts County, in the Southern League, could only share the points with Brighton, whilst Northampton, Torquay, and Brentford all went under—three big surprises.

Lincoln improved their lead in the Northern League, but Tranmere lost at Wigan, as did Wrexham at Hartlepool and Chesterfield at New Brighton—still more surprises!

There is no change at the head of the Scottish League, all five top teams winning.

SOUTH CHINA STILL UNDEFEATED.

ARGYLLS SWAMP NAVY.

South China, the present League leaders, continued in their winning vein by defeating Kowloon at Caroline Hill on Saturday. The Argylls ran riot with a weak Navy eleven which included only two of last season's regular players. St. Joseph's, on their own ground, surprised the Club by winning by the odd goal in three. The Police and Recreio had a hard tussle on the Railway ground, Recreio just succeeding in capturing full points after a keen struggle.

As a result of their victory over Kowloon, the Somersets now head the Second Division table. The Club gained their first victory by defeating the Navy by the odd goal in three.

The Argylls' second team helped their goal average at the expense of South China. The match between Eastern and St. Joseph's on the College ground was postponed owing to the non-appearance of the referee. Eastern, however, found a worthy substitute in the Radio Sports Club.

Ewo defeated the Somersets and are now joint leaders of the Third Division. Fukien scored seven goals against the Royal Air Force and conceded only two.

KOWLOON GOLF CLUB.

Championship First Round Results.

HOLDER DEFEATED.

The first round of the Club Championship was decided yesterday when the majority of the matches were played off, the sensation of the day being the defeat of the holder, F. E. A. Remedios by Dr. Cogan.

Great interest was centred on this match which resulted in a good win for the doctor by 4 and 3. Dr. Cogan playing excellent golf recorded 10 three's in the course of the round, and although he picked up his ball on two occasions his final score would be a 69 or a 70.

Remedios although playing steady golf could not touch this standard of play and lost several chances on the green where his short putting failed him. Cogan on the other hand putted well and excelled off the tees, driving long and true. At the fifth 262 yards he lipped the hole with his tee shot, but failed to sink a yarder for a two.

In the other games J. D. Thomson accounted for H. Mundy by four and three, while A. Cameron went down to W. Taylor by two and one. D. C. Wilson and E. D. da Roza fought out a keen match for Wilson to win on the 19th green by a putt. Returning to form and doing a 73, A. A. Lopes secured a victory over A. W. da Roza by three and one.

Considering the good cards T. Tait has been returning lately, it was a surprise when he was defeated by J. Mackintosh to the tune of five and three, yet "Mac" is a tough nut to crack and a doughty opponent at all times. Mackintosh played good golf and retained the lead throughout. T. Seddon, after being four up and five to go, met his "Waterloo" at the 19th, being defeated by H. Hampton. In the A. Eastman and F. C. Barry match, Eastman received a walk over.

By the defeat of F. E. A. Remedios the Club Championship will change hands for the first time since the opening of the Club in 1925. "F. E." is to be congratulated on this wonderful record, and all will admit that he has been a worthy winner on every occasion.

J. D. Thomson beat H. Mundy 4 & 3
W. Taylor beat A. Cameron 2 & 1
D. C. Wilson beat E. D. da Roza on the 19th green.
A. Eastman received a walk over from F. C. Barry.
A. A. Lopes beat A. W. da Roza ..... 3 & 1
Dr. Cogan beat F. E. A. Remedios ..... 4 & 3
J. Mackintosh beat T. Tait .. 5 & 3
H. Hampton beat T. Seddon on the 19th green.

RACING.

WISDOM STAG CONVINCINGLY BEATEN.

O'MOON RETURNS $213!

The Tenth Extra Race Meeting at Happy Valley on Saturday provided some of the best sport seen for a very long time. Close finishes were the order of the day, and visitors were rewarded with the spectacle of two dead heats for places in two successive races.

After a dead heat for third place in the second race, an incident which must be almost unique in local racing occurred, when three ponies could not be separated by the judges for second place in the very next item on the card.

In the principal event, the Hong Kong St. Leger, over 1¼ miles, King's Colour caused a minor sensation by defeating the hot favourite, Wisdom Stag, in most convincing manner. In fact the Stag had to be content with third place, behind Mike, and never looked like winning all through the race.

SALE OF WORK.

TO RAISE $3,000 FOR BUILDING FUND.

OPENED BY LADY PEEL.

With the object of raising their promised quota, namely $3,000, towards the new Church building and Manse Furnishing funds, the Women's Guild of the Union Church, Kowloon, held a successful sale of work on Saturday on the grounds of the Kowloon Cricket Club, close to the church in Cox's Path. Lady Peel, who was accompanied by Capt. T. A. H. Coltman, A.D.C., performed the opening ceremony.

Gaily bedecked with flags, the grounds proved a great attraction to many and frequent purchases were made at the stalls, which included needlework, novelty, sweets, white elephant (Y.P.S.), toys and a bran tub. Tea was served and the band of the Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders played pleasing selections.

There were many side show attractions and these were capably supervised by Messrs. Gardner, Ingram, Jenner and D. Lyon.

The proceedings opened with the singing of the Doxology, after which the Rev. Frank Short led in prayer.

Asset to the Community.

Prior to calling upon Lady Peel, wife of His Excellency Sir William Peel, K.B.E., C.M.G., to declare the bazaar open, the Rev. J. Horace Johnston addressed the gathering. He said that the sale of work had been organised by the Women's Guild to raise a considerable sum of money for the funds of the new Church Building and Manse. Across the street they saw the buildings under erection. He hoped that they would soon be completed, and, when this was done, it would be a great asset in serving the community.

The speaker thanked the Kowloon Cricket Club for the loan of that portion of ground which had enabled them to have the sale in the open air which was appropriate for this time of year. It had also enabled them to have a lawn bowls match, with the K.B.G.C. and several bowlers from the Hong Kong Union Church had been invited. He heartily thanked Lt.-Col. A. R. Maclaine, M.C., and Officers of the 93rd Highlanders for the band which, with its pleasing selections, he said, would brighten the entertainment.

The speaker added that the keen and energetic Band-Sergeant and bandsmen had offered their services freely for a good cause. (Applause). The presence of Lady Peel, said the speaker, had greatly encouraged all the workers.

H.E.'s First Visit.

He recalled the first visit which Sir William and Lady Peel paid to the Peninsula, when he (the speaker) had the great privilege of reading, on behalf of the K.R.A. the address of welcome. It was then stated that they hoped that the beauties and interests of the mainland would attract them both. Her ladyship had honoured Kowloon with two visits within the last few days. The speaker concluded by saying that Lady Peel always showed sympathy and generosity in the cause of charity and religion. (Applause).

Promise of $3,000.

Speaking on behalf of Mrs. J. H. Johnston, President of the Women's Guild, who was unavoidably detained from attending the opening ceremony, Mrs. D. Harvey thanked Lady Peel for her presence that afternoon. They had promised $3,000 towards the new church building and manse furnishing funds, and had had two whist drives at Kowloon Docks. One was organised by Mrs. Gow and the other by Mrs. Atkinson. Both these proved a great help financially. The speaker then called upon Lady Peel to declare the sale of work open, which her ladyship did in a few well-chosen words.

Little Flora Gow then presented Lady Peel with a basket of pretty gladioli, amid prolonged applause.

Lawn Bowls Match.

The Rev. E. G. Powell and Mrs. Powell were interested visitors at the sale, and in the course of the afternoon a bowls match was played between the K.B.G.C. and the Union Churches, the latter winning by one shot after a very keen contest.

The scores were:—

In calling upon Mrs. Johnston to present silver spoons to the players of the winning rinks, the Rev. Horace Johnston thanked them all for the splendid game they had played. He said that he saw no reason as to why there should not be a regular competition between the Hong Kong Union Church and the Kowloon Union Church, as both sides had a number of good bowlers, and there could be a very good game. In conclusion, the speaker thanked Mr. D. Gow (Hon. Secretary of the Union Church) who had organised the game.

The National Anthem brought a happy afternoon to an appropriate close.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 9.

The Golden Text was: "As by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." (Romans 5; 18.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." (1 John 3; 9.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The standard of perfection was originally God and man. Has God taken down His own standard, and has man fallen? God is the creator of man, and, the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea or reflection, man, remains perfect." (p. 470.)

The director of the local zoo was away on holiday, when he received the following note from his chief assistant:—"Everything all right, except that the chimpanzee seems to be pining for a companion. What shall we do until your return?"

CUNNING DEVICE.

OPIUM IN MOTOR CAR ACCUMULATOR.

DETECTIVE'S DEAF EAR.

A Chinese named Kwok Kwong hit upon a cunning method of smuggling opium which he concealed in the box of an old motor car accumulator. The three cells were removed and three dummies, about two inches deep, were put in their place. These were filled with acid and placed in position over the opium which was stuffed into the empty space at the bottom of the box.

The idea was a good one because on superficial examination the battery with the cells charged with acid looked to be in working order. Apparently confident that his trick would not be discovered, Kwok carried the accumulator openly under his arm and strolled along Connaught Road West looking for all the world like a motor mechanic.

An Invitation!

Unfortunately for Kwok, a Chinese detective got information that he was an opium runner and stopped him. Not understanding anything about accumulators, the detective turned a deaf ear to Kwok's argument and invited him to take the gadget with him to the No. 7 Police Station and show it to the Inspector.

At the station the accumulator was opened and 21 tael-tins of prepared opium were found in the bottom of the box. Kwok was accordingly placed on the charge sheet and within two hours of his arrest was produced before Mr. R. E. Lindsell. He had no option but to plead "guilty," but said that the accumulator was given to him by an unknown man to carry. He was to meet the man at West Point.

The Magistrate was, of course, not convinced, and imposed a fine of $2,000 or six months' hard labour. The opium was confiscated.

BAD LUCK.

AMERICAN SEAMAN ON THE ROCKS.

An American seaman named John Craig was on Saturday produced before Mr. E. H. Williams as a vagrant.

In reply to the Magistrate Craig said: "Yes, I gave myself up here yesterday."

Sergeant Patton told his Worship that Craig arrived here on the motor vessel Defiance and had been in the Colony since October 27. He had some money on which he had lived until Friday, when, having run out of funds, he gave himself up at the Central Police Station. The Sergeant added that the American Consul was making arrangements to get a ship to take Craig away.

The Magistrate committed Craig to the House of Detention pending the completion of arrangements for his repatriation.

The Greatest Servant of Humanity.

Quietly, unobstrusively, and often with very little public acclamation of his valuable accomplishments, the Research Chemist goes on with his job of tracking down the enemies of mankind and in finding out ways and means of combating them. He is the saviour of the sick and the guardian of the healthy. It is such men who are responsible for the production of the greatest weapon of the present era for the combating of that scourge of humanity—Anaemia (impoverished blood). The remedy for anaemia, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which has proved a tremendous success all over the world was discovered by an eminent medico-scientist of Edinburgh University and undoubtedly the world owes him a great debt for his work. Anaemia is an insidious disease that gradually creeps upon the victim unawares. The early symptoms are not such as would indicate anything very serious, being wrong, just slight listlessness, loss of energy, and feeling of "off colour."

But anaemia works in a vicious circle, for once the blood has become below par the digestive organs, lacking the rich and plentiful blood-supply so essential for perfection digestion of food, fails to extract the necessary nourishment from the food and in this way the original anaemic conditions are intensified.

But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills reverse the cycle. As soon as they enter the blood they enable the system to absorb large quantities of oxygen, which enriches and increases the red cells, thus building up the blood independently. Digestion automatically improves and more nourishment is obtained from the food, enhancing the effect of the remedy upon the blood as well as strengthening the nerves, restoring vitality and bringing renewed energy.

Listlessness, back-ache, depression, pallor, dyspepsia, rheumatism, palpitation, dizziness, headaches, "nerves," all having their first cause in impoverished blood, soon give way to this world-famous remedy. Start building up your blood right away with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and you can be satisfied that the vicious circle of anaemia has been broken and that your feet are at last on the high-road to new health and happiness.

At a meeting of the committee of the Rugby Football Union it was announced that the selection committee would be the same as last year—Vice-Admiral P. Royds, Mr. A. D. Stoop, Mr. J. Daniel, Mr. James Baxter, and Mr. R. F. Oakes.

The representatives on the International Board will be Mr. W. T. Pearce, Vice-Admiral Royds, Mr. V. M. Cartwright, and Mr. James Baxter.

It was decided to demolish the present west stand at Twickenham and build a new double-decker to hold about 12,250 spectators.

An informal conference between representatives of the Rugby Football Union and the Welsh Rugby Union, to discuss the cancellation of fixtures between English and Welsh clubs, is being arranged.

INDIAN'S FOURTH WIN IN LEAGUE.

BUMPING PITCHES.

The majority of the home teams were unsuccessful in the four matches which were decided in the Junior Division of the Cricket League on Saturday.

The I.R.C. II are to be congratulated on their fine struggle to get the necessary runs in a limited period of time. This is the fourth victory of the season. The struggle betwen the second teams of the Craigengower C.C. and the Hong Kong C.C. resulted in a surprise win for the latter side.

The Police R.C. went down badly to the Club de Recreio, whilst the University II (the only home team to win), easily accounted for the Royal Corps of Signals.

SCENE IN SUSSEX.

BRIGHT HOUR AT THE PLOUGHING MATCH.

MUSCLE AND SKILL.

"To the Ploughing Match," said a bill affixed to an oak in a lane, so I took the hint, and a brighter hour I have never spent. This is an annual September event of the town and district society, of which all the local landowners are vice-presidents. As well as in ploughing, there are competitions for hedging, hay and straw tying, stack building and thatching, and milking. All the world and his wife and daughter are there as I make for the field where the allotted half-acres are being ploughed by two-horse teams—a scene enlivened with colour, movement, and sound, the first book of the "Georgics" in a nutshell.

The tree-cinctured low shingled spire of the church of the hamlet—the church of an English exile's dreams—looks on at this display of muscle and skill, as the ploughmen stride up and down the furrows talking to patient horses with modest mien. Each man is intent on his strip of some 12 yards in width at the end of which, maybe, stands a friend or employer critically estimating the points of the work—the straightness of the line, the regularity of the throw-up, the level of the surface, and the uniformity of the depth, the standard being 4in. to 5in. In spite of skill and calculation the soft patch lets the share in deeper. Twelve teams are plodding steadily and silently to and fro, the big, glossy, rich brown horses bedizened for the occasion with bright ribbons on head and neck and tail, and pendent brasses reminding one of the trappings of a Roman centurion. The brown clods of stubborn clay glisten in the sun. At the furrow's end the pair executes a broad curve, and there is a moment's pause while the ploughman, tapping the while with his spanner to make some fine adjustment, has his joke with Jack Dewdney or Tom Gratwick. Then off again, turning in the last thin line of green in the centre of his strip. His bit done, he makes off for his free lunch in the barn.

Five of the 12 competitors belong to the class of champions, old hands, who, as luck would have it, have been allotted the dry end of the field. As one, steering a magnificent pair of greys approaches, 'Dick's work is as good as ever," says an expert. I think that pair will carry off the 20s. prize for the best team, though there are browns and whites that will run them close. In another field, where the soil is difficult—"Enough to break their hearts," says one—lads are ploughing in two classes, under 21 years and under 18½ years. It all looks so prosperous that I rub my eyes and wonder whether agricultural depression is after all a reality; but the hard fact is that six fewer ploughing teams have entered than last year.

On a big field below are six humming tractors at work, not without smell of petrol and exhaust fumes and tapping of spanners. A friend, habitual praiser of times gone by, will have none of them, and pours out a tirade against the evil effects of mechanisation. Aesthetically, at least, though they plough 1½ acres to the half acre of the hand plough, these panting tanks hold no candle to the horse-drawn "chariot of Demeter."

And so to the hedging and ditching, where competitors are dealing each with two rods, cutting, laying, and ditching as a stock fence on grazing land. An excellent job they were making of it, though the material was rough; some, said a judge, were putting too much dead brush back into the hedge. Hay and straw tying, five trusses apiece, attracted only a small entry, but these were artistes in their job. Stacks and already been judged.

For milking there were two classes: men and women of 18 years and over, and boys and girls under 18. Sad that only one girl entrant competed. Competitors in all classes ranged in age from 16 to 70 years. The net is widely spread and various kinds of skill have their rewards. Prizes are offered for the best-kept everyday double plough harness, for the best-groomed pair of horses, and for the best-kept tractor, for the ploughman most suitably dressed for the work, for the man who has served the longest time on one farm or with one employer, and for the competitor with the largest family.—The Times.

I will walk round Maharg like a co-oper round a barrel.—Walter Lemmon.

She had done everything wrong. She had disregarded the signal lights, then stalled in the middle of the road, and, before restarting, had taken out her powder-puff and begun to apply to her face.

The irate traffic constable strolled up. "Say, lady," he said, "do you know anything at all about traffic rules?"

"Why, yes," she said, calmly. "What can I tell you?"

CRICKET.

INDIAN'S FOURTH WIN IN LEAGUE.

BUMPING PITCHES.

The majority of the home teams were unsuccessful in the four matches which were decided in the Junior Division of the Cricket League on Saturday.

The I.R.C. II are to be congratulated on their fine struggle to get the necessary runs in a limited period of time. This is the fourth victory of the season. The struggle betwen the second teams of the Craigengower C.C. and the Hong Kong C.C. resulted in a surprise win for the latter side.

The Police R.C. went down badly to the Club de Recreio, whilst the University II (the only home team to win), easily accounted for the Royal Corps of Signals.
